- 2) Our Rebels proudly silence themselves to salute our country.
- 3) Our Rebel mascots encourage and lead the crowd.

it's a great day to BE a REBEL

We are the Richland Rebels.

We reside in North Richland Hills, Texas.

We succeeded in making playoffs in volleyball, boy's basketball, softball, girls soccer and football; even advancing to play in Jerry's World (Dallas Cowboy's new stadium).

Simply put, it was time to CHANGE things around here and that's exactly what we did. From the new parking lot, to the customized electrical box on the corner of Dick Lewis and Holiday Lane. Our cafeteria got a makeover, we got a brand spanking new school and a new principal, yet we're still proud to BE the same old Richland Rebels.

We have a no-zero policy, keeping us on top of things academically.

Being the best, we have one National Merit Finalist, two Commended National Merit Finalists, Three National Hispanic Finalists, and One Honorable Mention National Hispanic Finalist, just to name a few.

Just one more thing, we will always BE Rebels.

NewBiEs to Richland

The most prominent new additions to Richland High are our new principal and our new building. Our building cost $47,251,941.00. The school grew from 105,541sq. ft. to 271,269 sq. ft.

The old building was totally demolished between June -July of 2009 Some of the most expensive things about our new school was the foundation and concrete work, the plumbing, electrical, HVAC (heating, ventilation, and air conditioning) and masonry work, and all of the many blocks and bricks. One of the last things put into our school was the blue light system for signaling another Rebel Victory. Also, twelve new teachers were added to our faculty to help educate and inspire the student body.

Carla Rix is the school's new Principal since Mr. Cobb left to become an Assistant Superintendent in Irving. Nick Garcia had the opportunity to sit down with Mrs. Rix and interview her. She has been a teacher in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Japan, Missouri, Richland Middle, Richland High, and an Assistant Principal, and Principal of both Richland High and North Ridge Middle School all in a span of about 30 years. She said that being a Principal at RHS is her dream job and that given the opportunity, she would not move up to the administrative office, because she wants to interact with children.

"Summer is the most relaxing time of the year, and I cannot wait for next summer."
~ Megan Boland (9)

"I loved spending time with friends at the lake!" ~ Katherine Barrow (9)

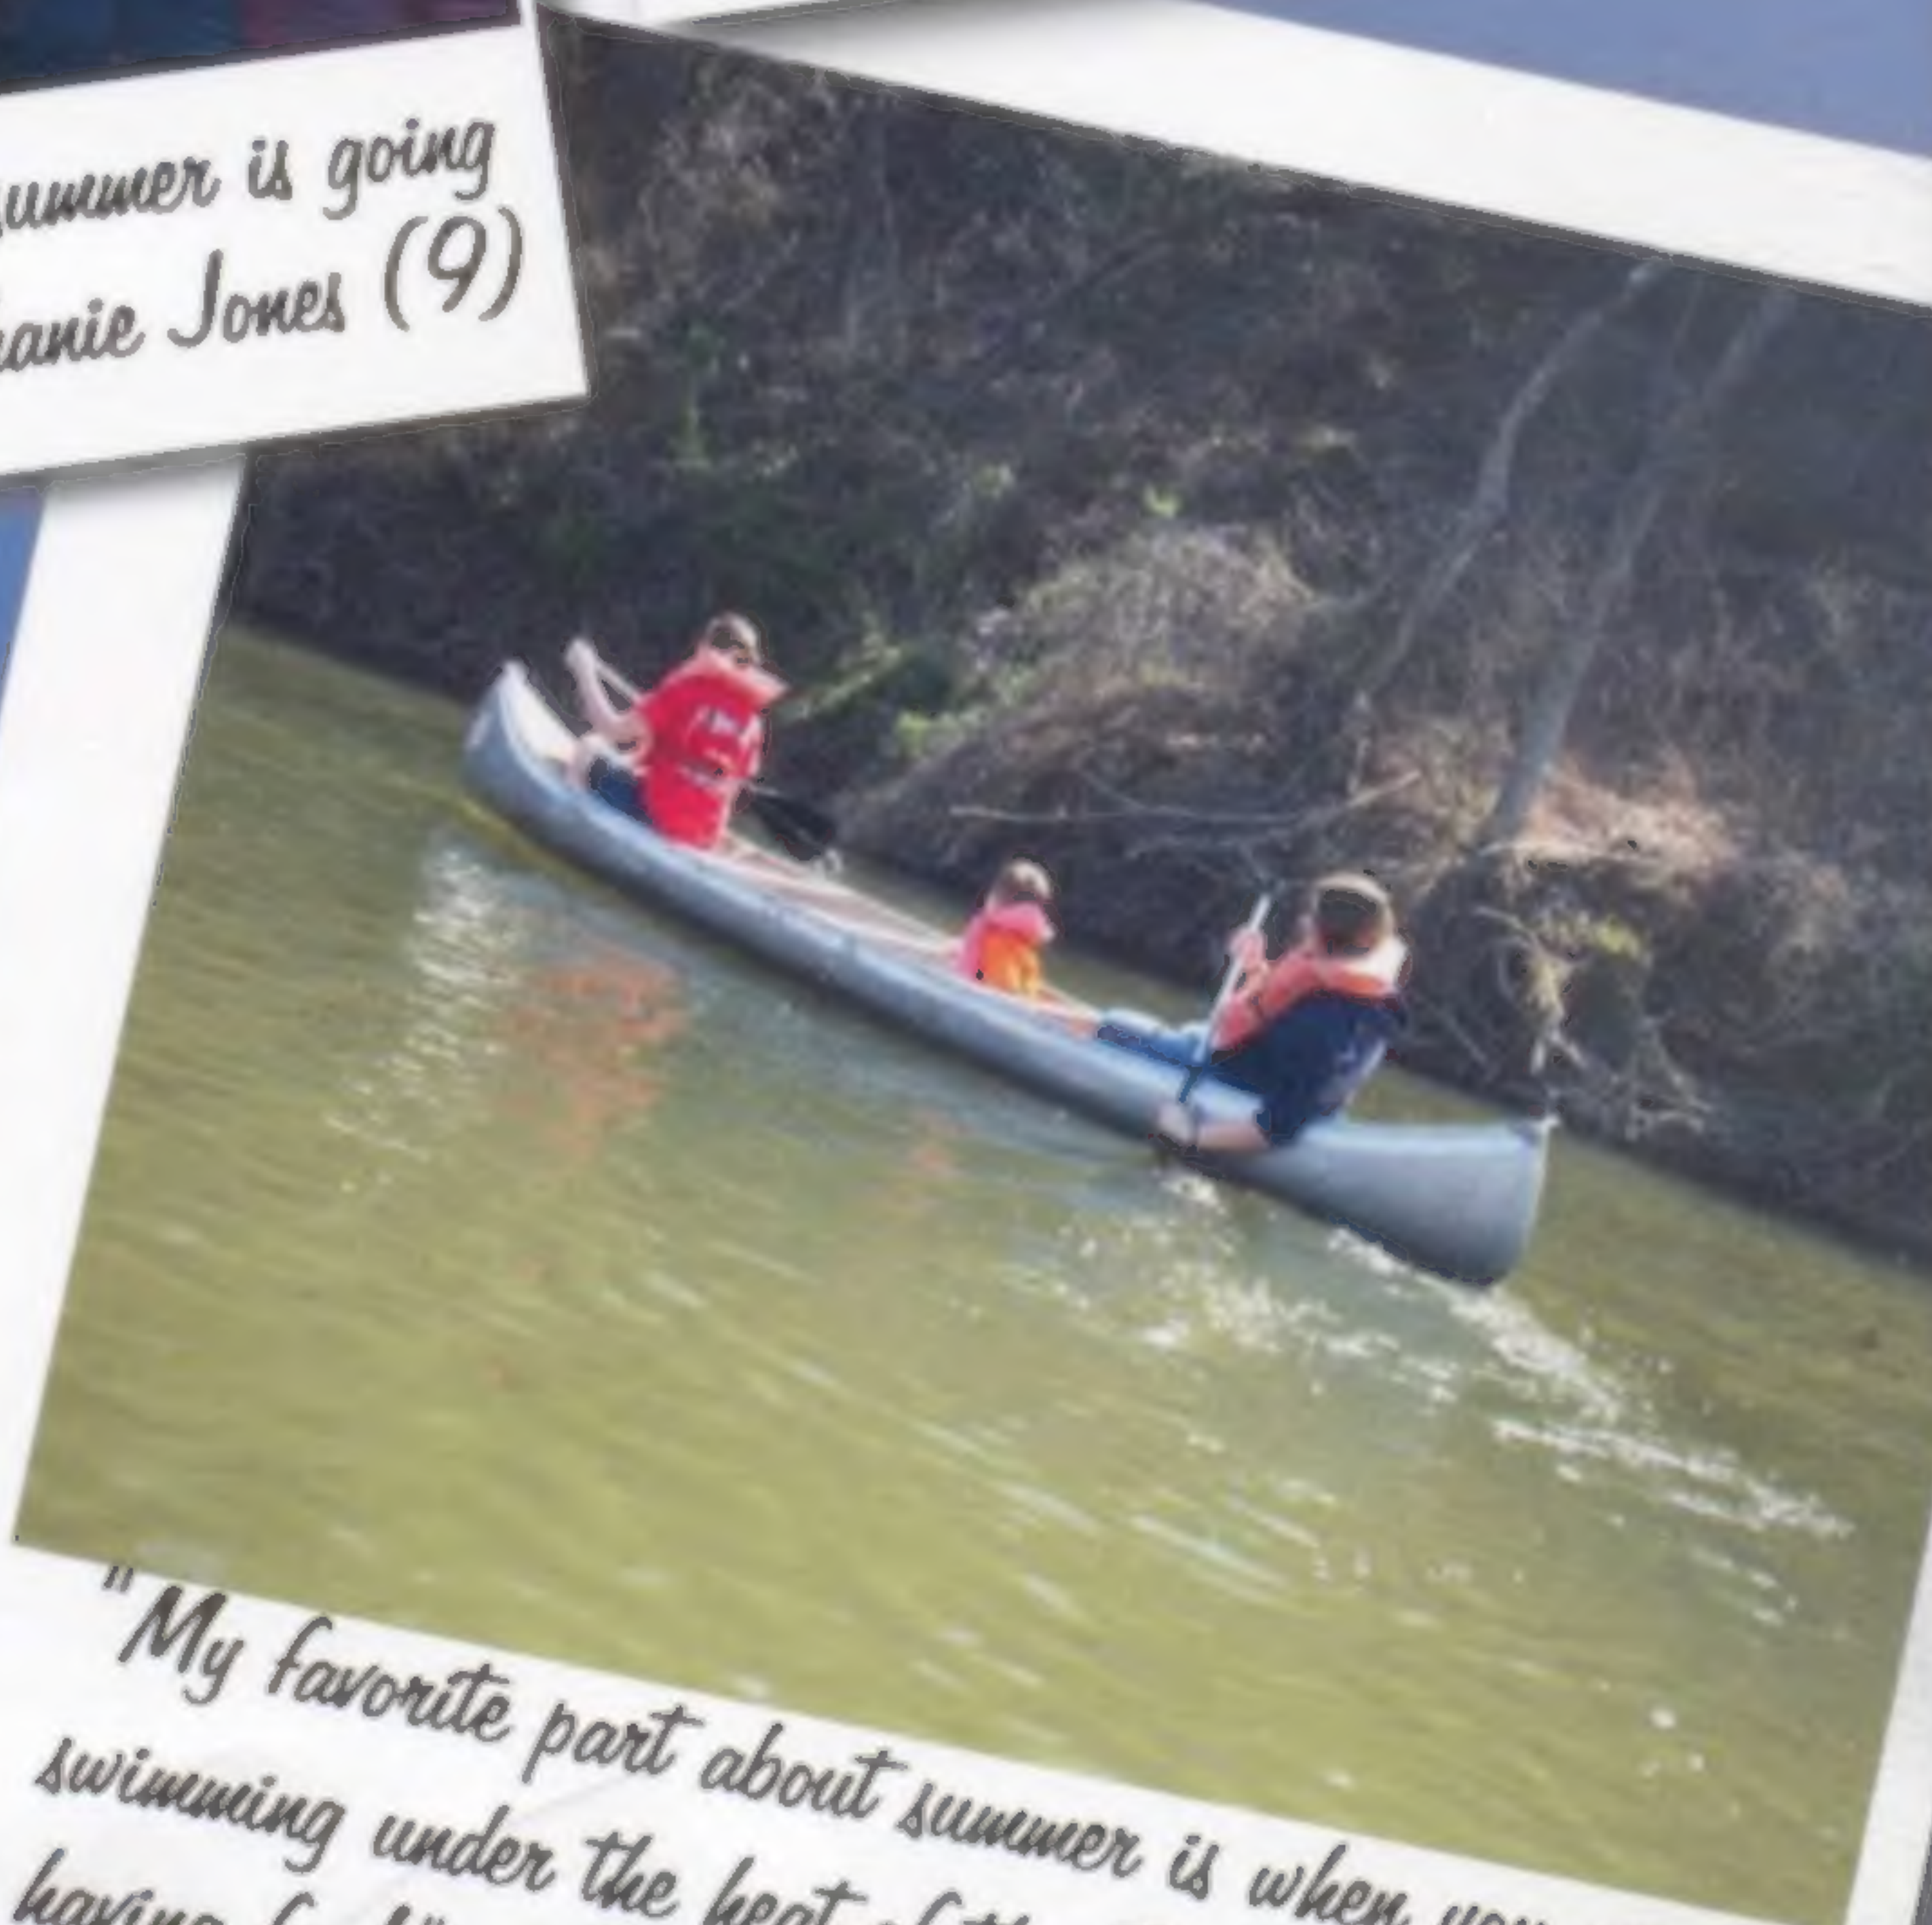

"One of the perks for volunteering was getting to swim." ~ Mallory Richards

"My favorite part of summer was my trip to the beach."
~ Megan Servage (11)

"My favorite thing to do in summer is going to the Stockyards." ~ Stephanie Jones (9)

"My favorite part about summer is when you are swimming under the heat of the Texas sun just having fun!" ~ Margaret Morris (9)

"My favorite part about summer was spending time with friends." ~Autumn Hartt (9)

"My favorite thing I did this summer was going to my friend's lake house with some of my other friends and enjoying the lake there." ~ Lauren Heffernan (9)

Summer '09

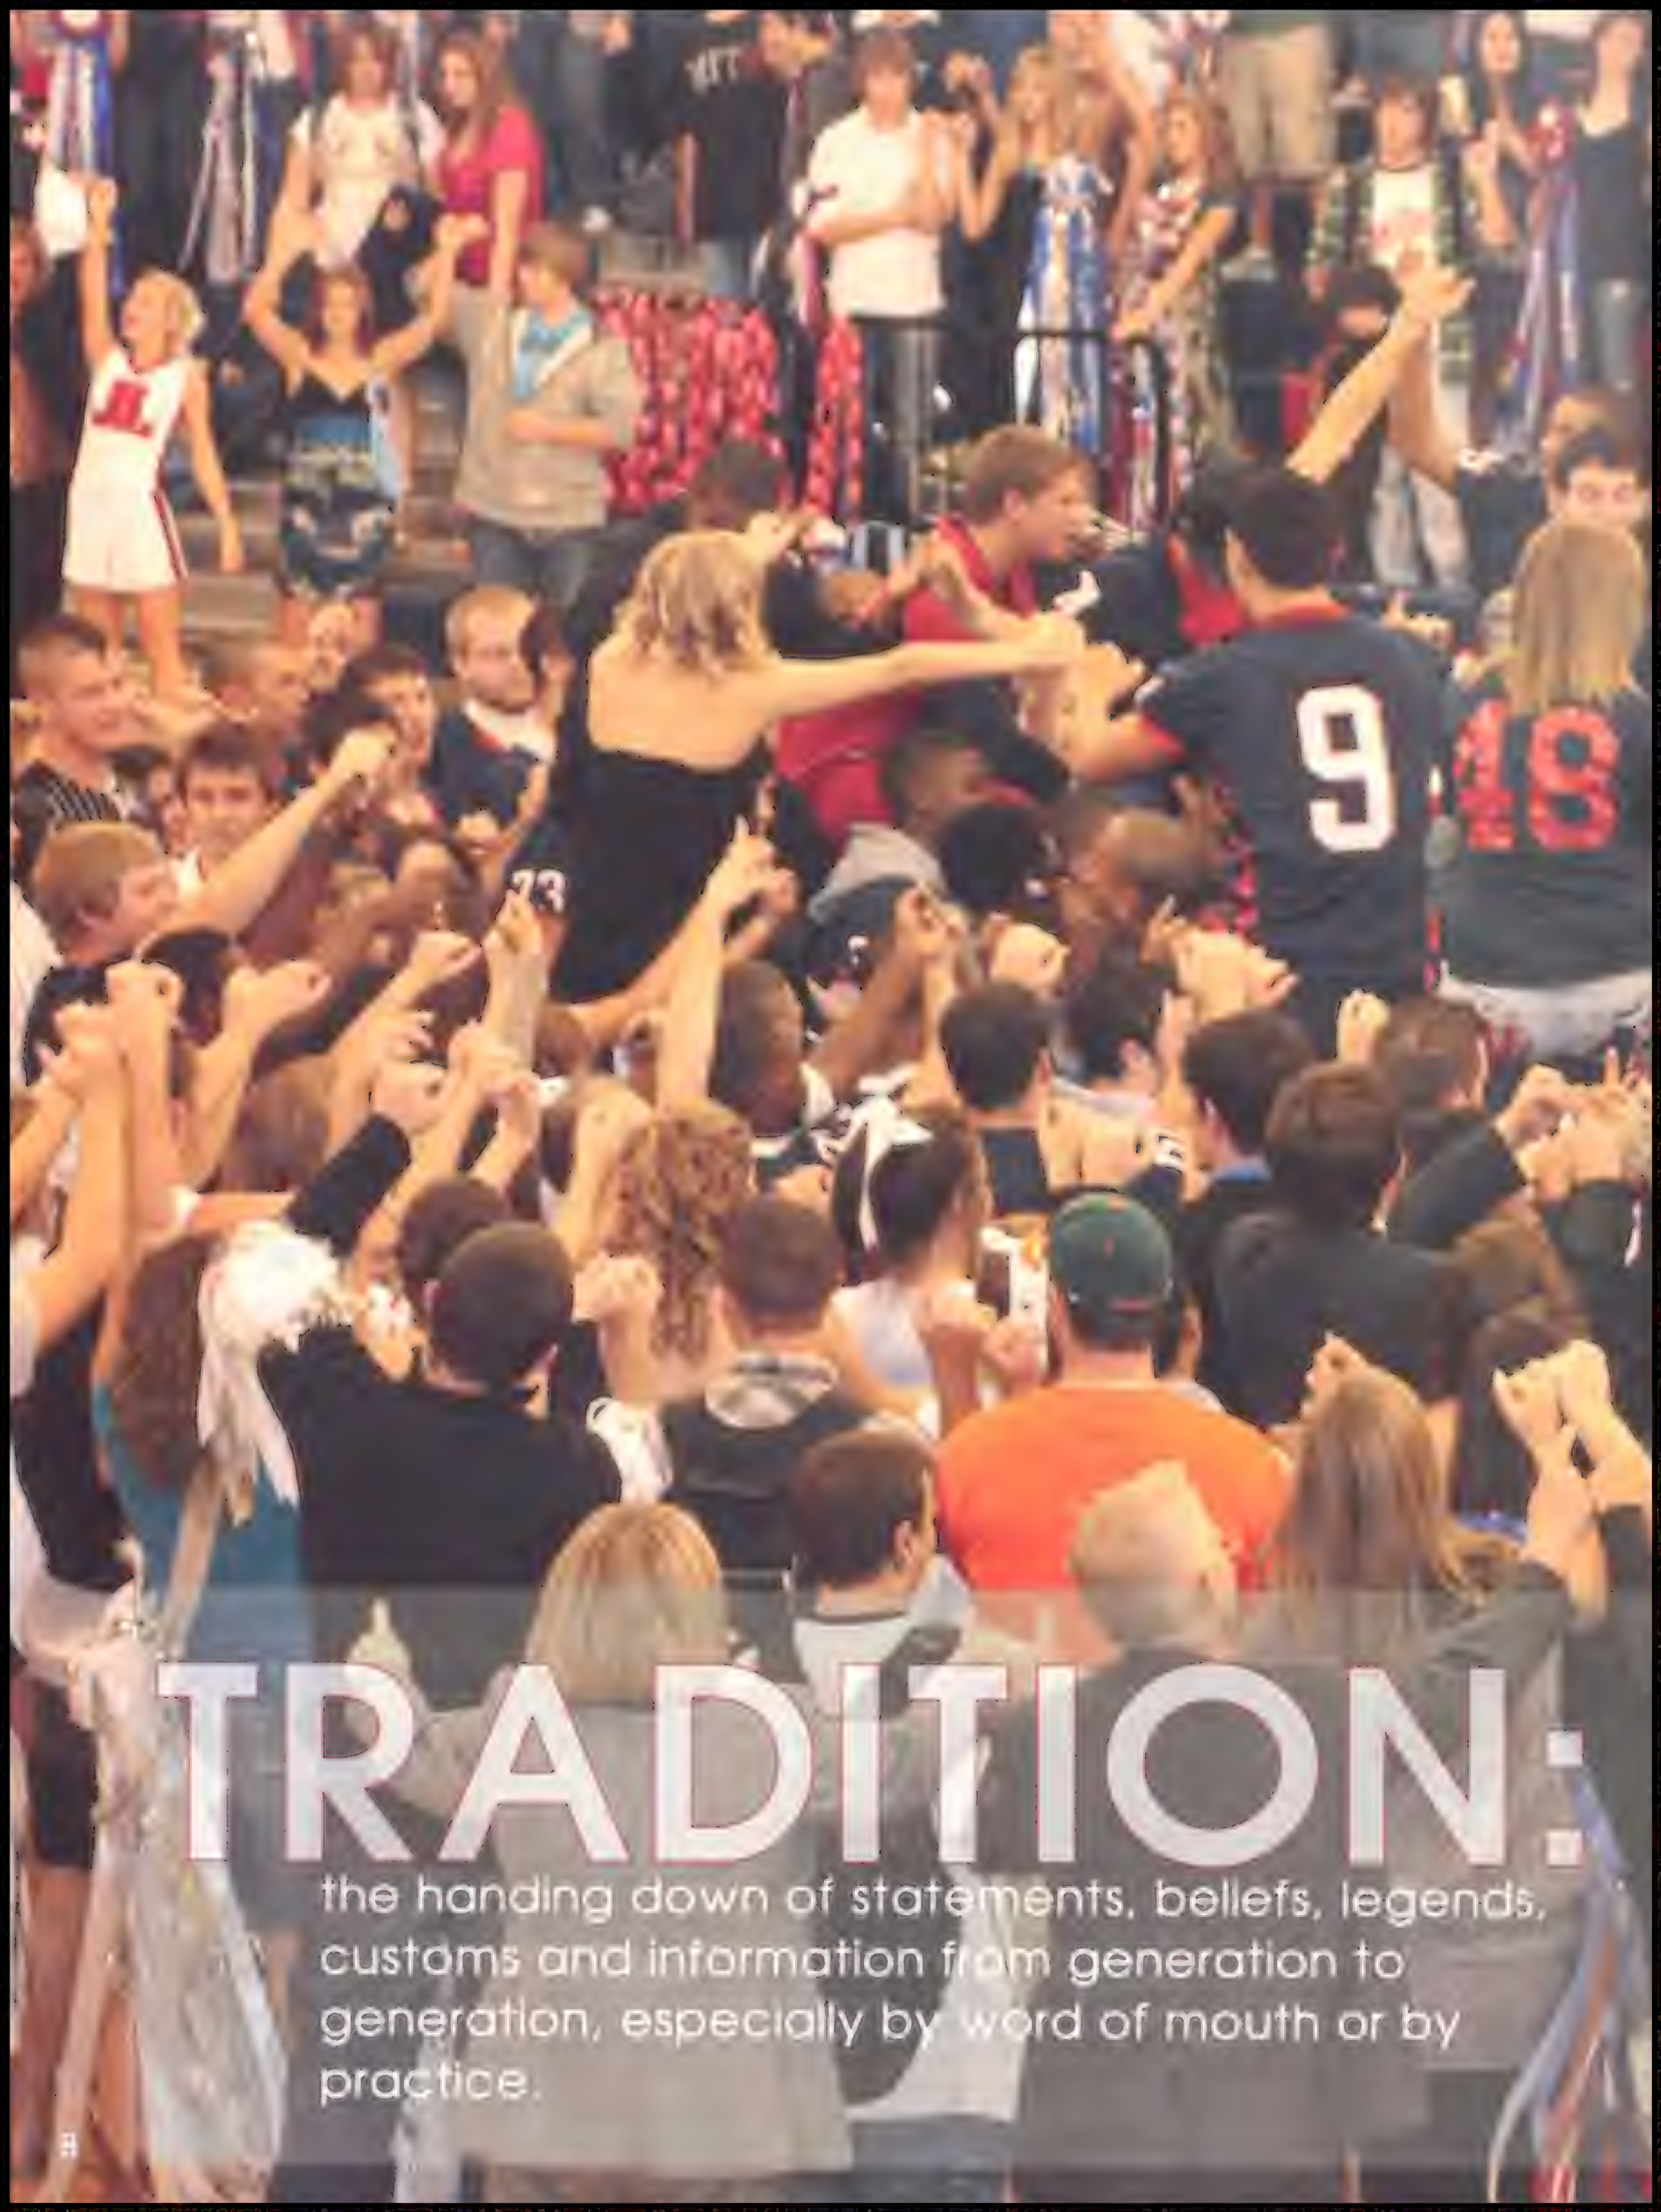

"Hanging out with friends, laying by the pool and just having fun made summer '09 the best summer so far."

"Zip lining was a thrill and I went back later that night to do it again." ~ Kathryn Juren (12)

"My favorite thing I did this summer was going to Yellowstone National Park." ~ Alex Pursley (9)

HOME SWEET HOMECOMING

Homecoming is the tradition of welcoming back former residents and alumni of an institution. It most commonly refers to a tradition in many universities, colleges and high schools. It usually includes activities for students and alumni, such as sports and culture events and a parade through the streets of the city or town.

BE There!

Rebels on the weekends

When hanging out with friends, you don't seem to care what you're doing; all that matters is that you have fun. These are the days that we will never forget, so why not make the most of them. BE silly, act goofy, remember the people that are there for you through thick and thin, and most of all, never forget the laughter and the tears.

BE Trendy

Everyday there are new trends.
Nothing stays the same the whole year and we are here to show it.

Ten Favorite Songs of the '09-'10 School Year:

- Ashley Greene (9) Bad Romance - Lady Gaga
- Bailey Muncrief (11) Small Town USA - Justin Moore
- Meranda Mullins (9) Tik Tok - Ke$ha
- Garrett Hill (12) Do I - Luke Bryan
- Mallory Richardson (12) American Honey - Lady Antebellum

- Lauren Morgan (10) Break Even - The Script
- Trevor Pizzini (10) Bedrock - Young Money

"I'd say vans. Gotta love shoes!"

-Andrew Fontecchio (12)

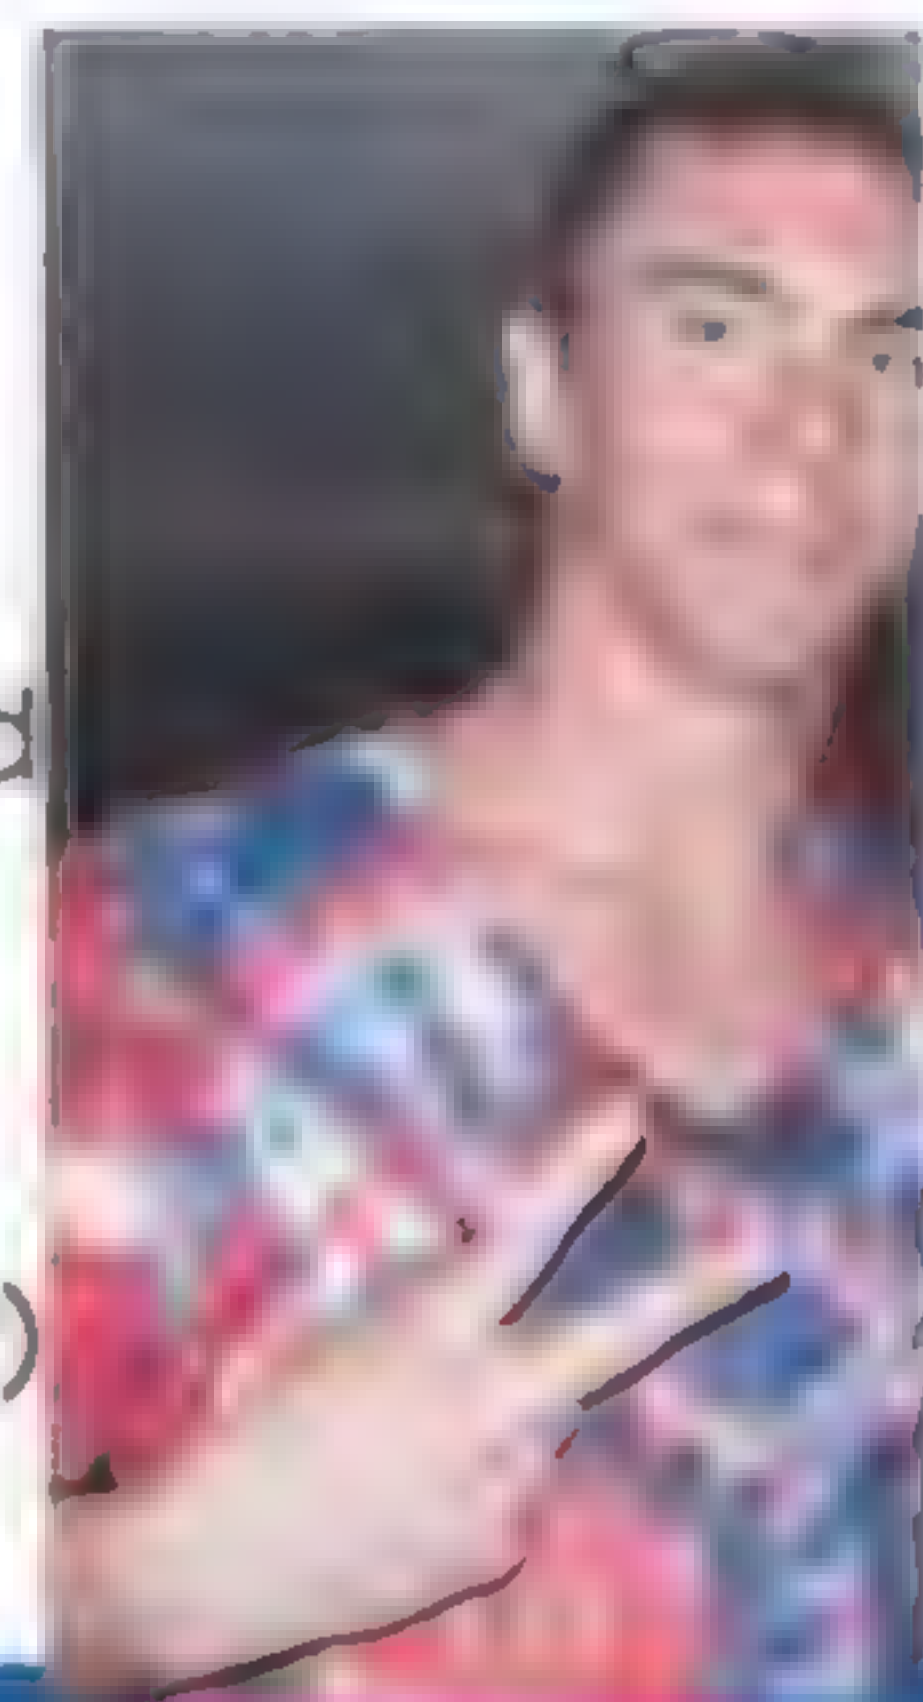

"I enjoy the fact that everyone gets their news from Facebook now, whether it's about the latest gossip or worldwide issues. You don't even need to watch the news, or read the newspaper because someone probably posted a status or made a fanpage about it!" -Mimi Ho (9)

"My cinch jeans, boots, and tshirt."

-Quade Butterfield (12)

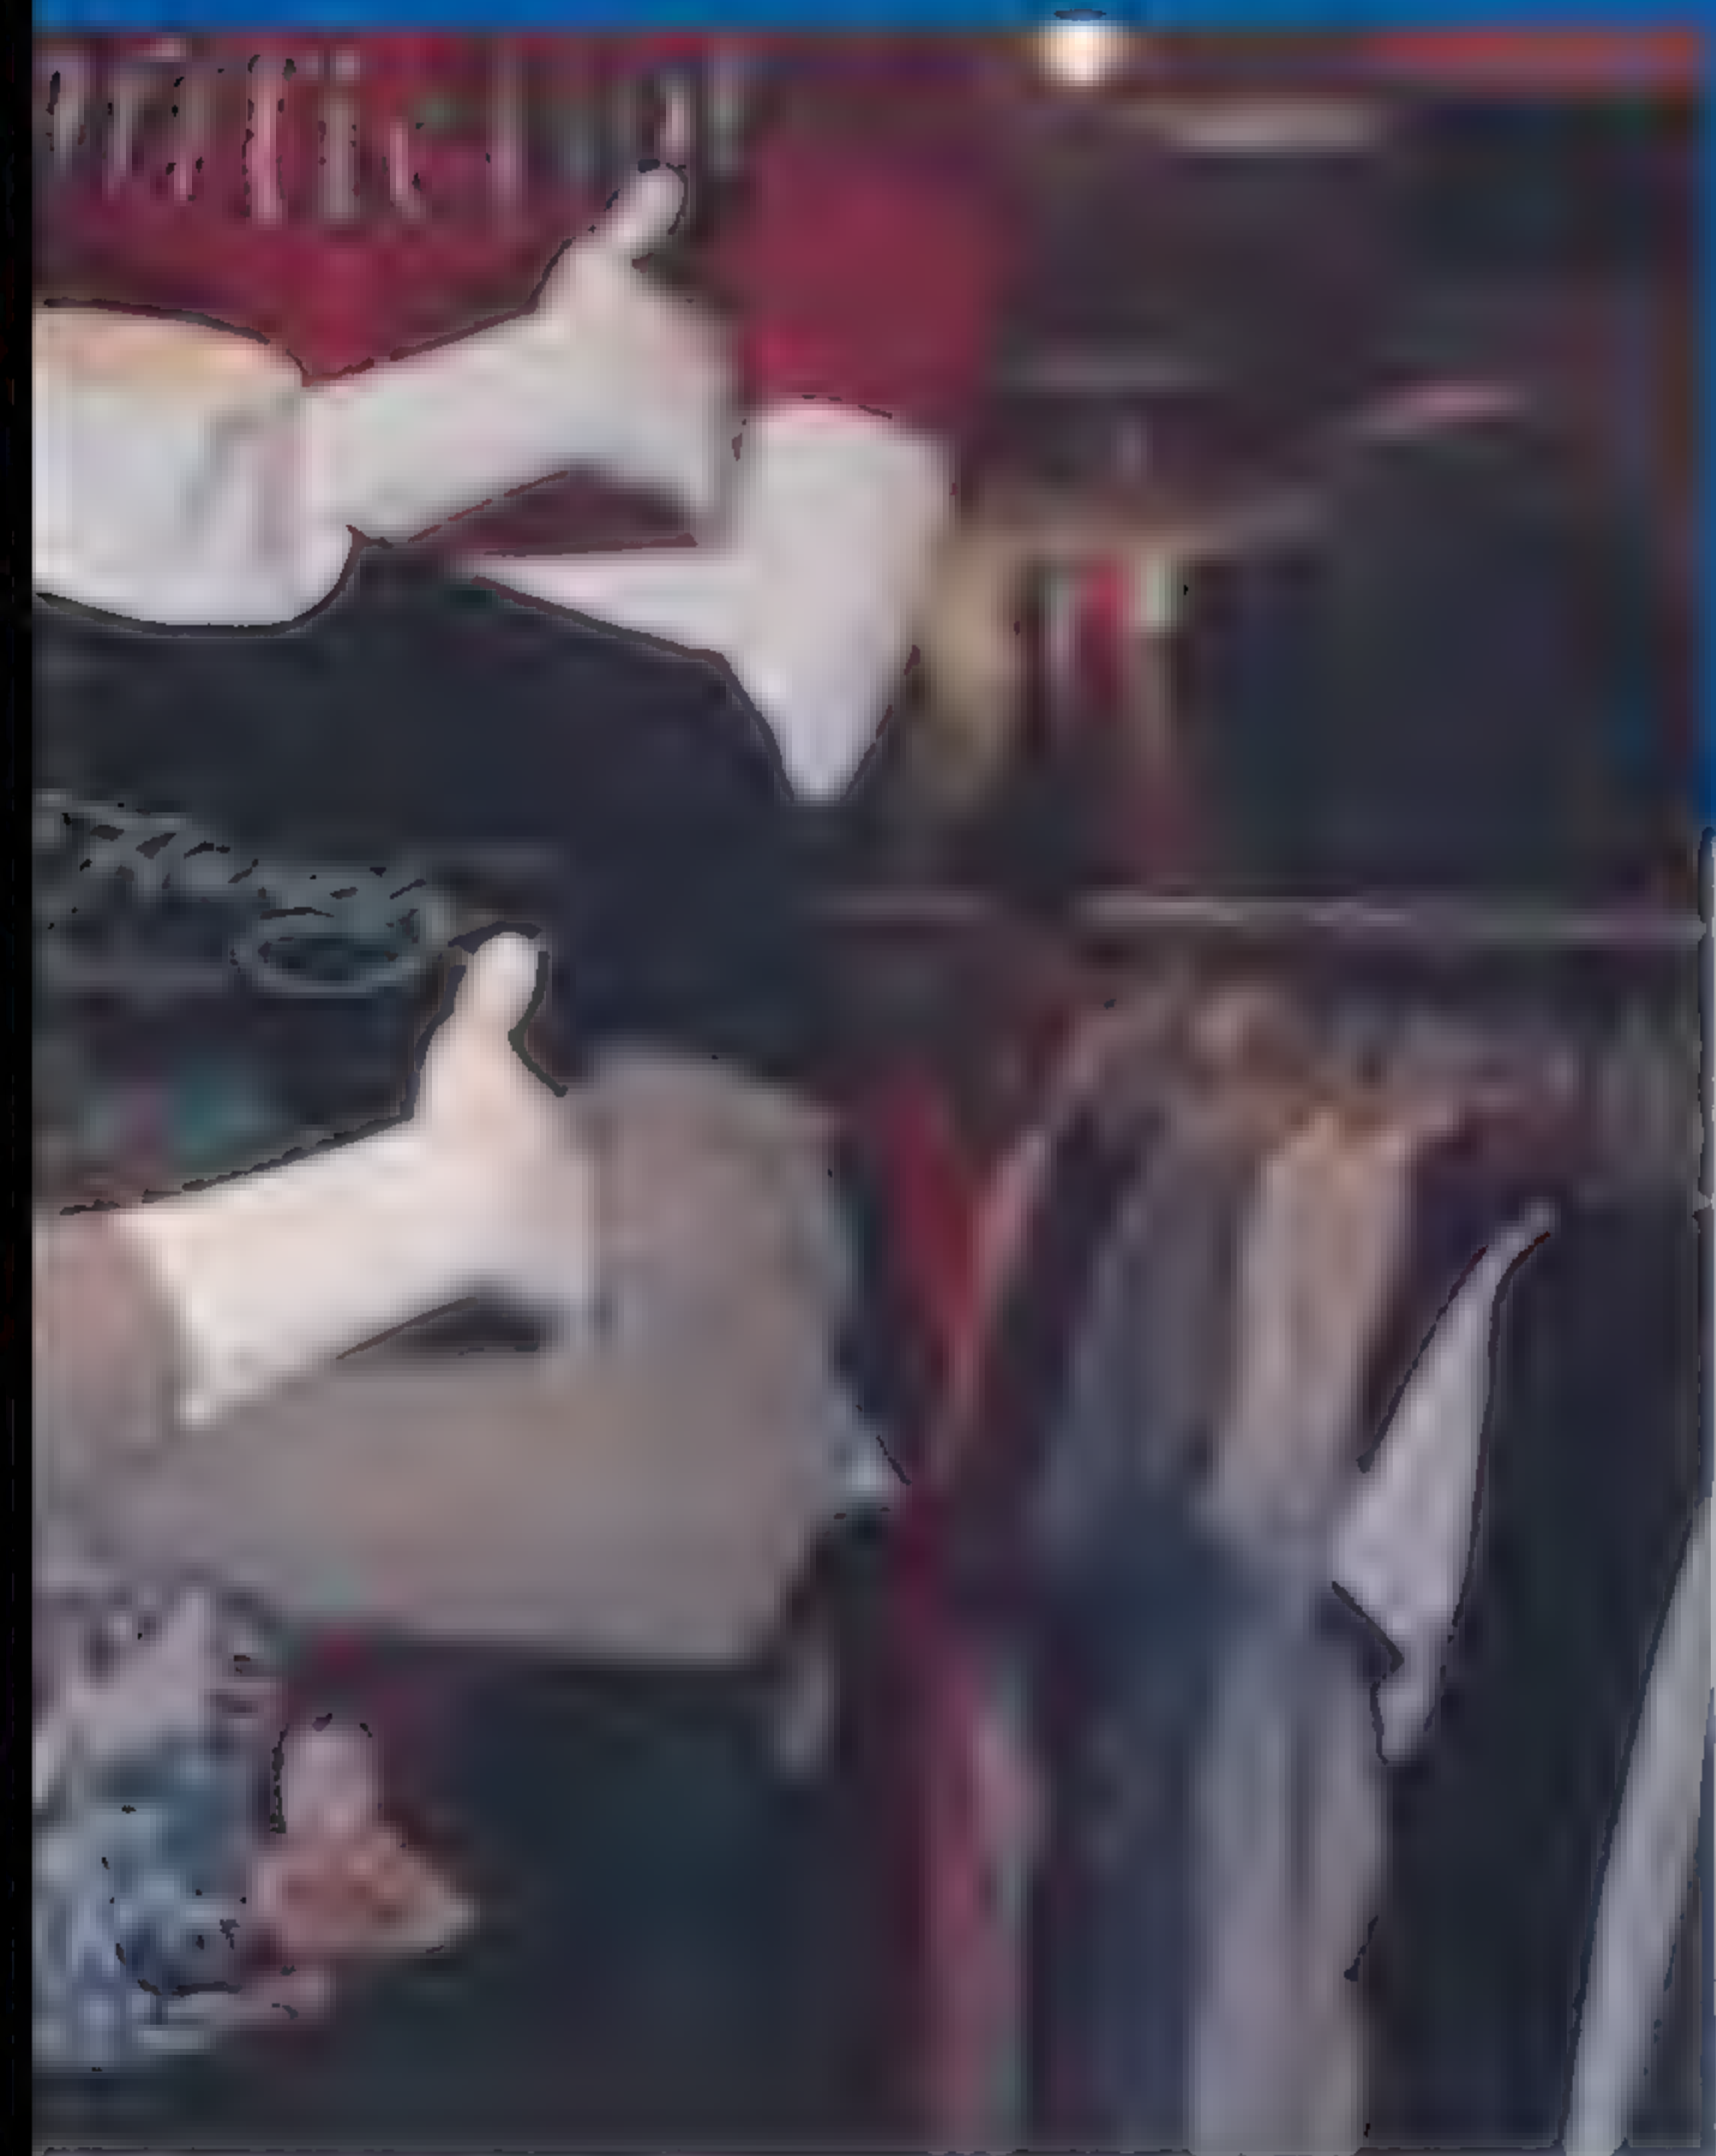

"Jorts and v-neck."

-Kyle Smith (12)

"Facebook is cool."

-Brandon Ritze (9)

"My favorite trend this year would definitely have to be cardigans. A lot of people started to wear those;and of course sweatpants never get old either!"

-Amanda Perez (12)

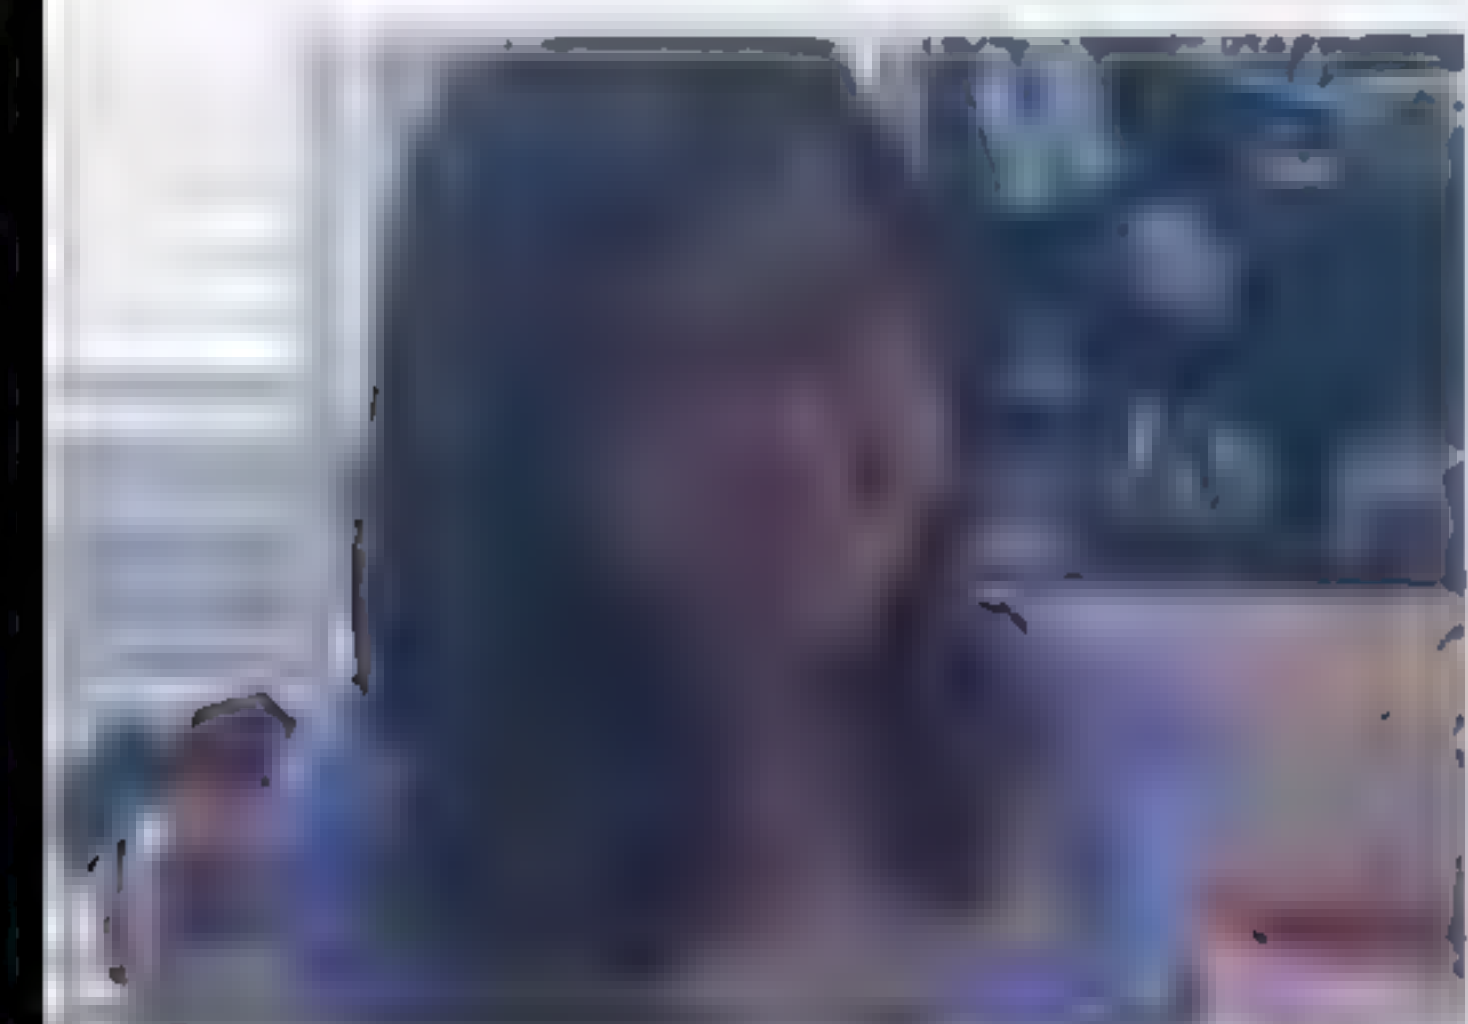

"Moccasins. Definately." -Sarah Gomez (10)

"My favorite trend of this year had to have been TOMS, because they're comfortable and support a good cause."

-Rachael Hildebrandt (9)

"I get tired of people asking for Becky."
JOSE GONZALEZ-10

"I love working with all the animals."

Rebel football went far this year. Despite being plagued by injuries, The Rebs still make the playoffs. The Sophomores and Juniors that were on Varsity had the best time of their lives that night, wishing it would never end. But the Seniors had a different outlook on that night in Jerry World. Matthew Harris-12, a senior, says, "I wasn't that nervous, until I saw myself on the enormous jumbotron, that's when I started really feeling the butterflies in my stomach." He also goes on to say that "it was an incredible and exciting experience to be able to play in the death star for this playoff game. I didn't want to end my Senior year (of football) that night.."

"One day your life will flash before your eyes. Make sure it's worth watching."

Teacher of the Year: Mr. Patrick Kelley

"I enjoy the interaction with the students. It is always exciting for me to see students realize that they can do difficult subject material. Chemistry is difficult as a course, and to see that "light" go on is really rewarding."

Everyone knows that every year we have a new teacher of the year, this school year's teacher of the year is the one and only Mr. Kelley.

What inspired you to be a teacher? "I had received a scholarship in order to be a pharmacist, but was unable to attend the school. Through a series of "open doors" and some "closing doors", it was obvious that God was leading me to be a teacher. I received a scholarship that allowed me to complete my 5th year of college while earning my Bachelor's and Master's degree in Education."

Outside of school, what are some of your favorite things to do? "Outside of school, I enjoy playing sports (softball, volleyball, basketball). I also coach my son's baseball team and that has always been a great experience. My favorite activity though is fishing. I don't get to do it much, but I really enjoy it."

What is your favorite subject to teach? "I have taught multiple subjects since I have been teaching.....biology, IPC, Physics, Physics II, Chemistry, Pre-AP chemistry, TAKS Science, Anatomy and Physiology. Chemistry has been my favorite class to teach. "

Faculty Cookout

I usually have lunch with my English peeps. Events like the Faculty Cookout give me the opportunity to mix it up a bit and visit with my other coworkers.
-Steven Schilling.

Some days out of the week, working just seems to drag on and on. That is why it's nice to be able to sit back, relax and enjoy a good meal with your coworkers and friends. At the faculty cookout teachers, principals, and other faculty members at Richland High School met in the teacher's lounge whenever they had a moment to eat. "I usually have lunch with my English peeps. Events like the Faculty Cookout give me the opportunity to mix it up a bit and visit with my other coworkers," said Steven Schilling. Outside Kyle Pekerney was grilling burgers and hot dogs. Inside the lounge area, there were all kinds of food and drinks like cokes, water, and deserts cooked by the cafeteria staff.

The faculty cookout was one of many ways that the teachers and faculty at Richland High School were showed appreciation.

Front Office

Behind the Scenes

"I loved working in the AP office with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Thompson. I love them. It was a great experience."

Ciaran Wright-12

Every day at Richland High School is a busy one. From new students enrolling to current students' issues, there is never a dull moment in the office.

There is always plenty to do around the office as well. If a student is tardy, they need to go to the tardy calculator where their tardy is counted by Ms. Kristen King and the student gets a pass back to class. When you walk out of that office, you pass through the attendance office where a student who is either absent or leaving school with an early dismissal would need to go.

In the counselors' office, students can talk to their assigned counselor about several different things such as grades, college, school work, or life. That's what our counselors are there for.

Students also have the chance to be an office aid, where they run errands for the secretaries when they need help such as taking requests from the office to the student in the class.

It's A Time To Celebrate

Project Celebration 2010!

Project Celebration is a fun way to spend your prom night. It was set up and run by parents who wanted their children to be safe and not out partying all night. It opened at 12 am and if the student didn't get in the doors by 1 am they couldn't participate. The past several years that Project Celebration has been around, it has been held at the Collesium, however this year, it was held at Richland High School.

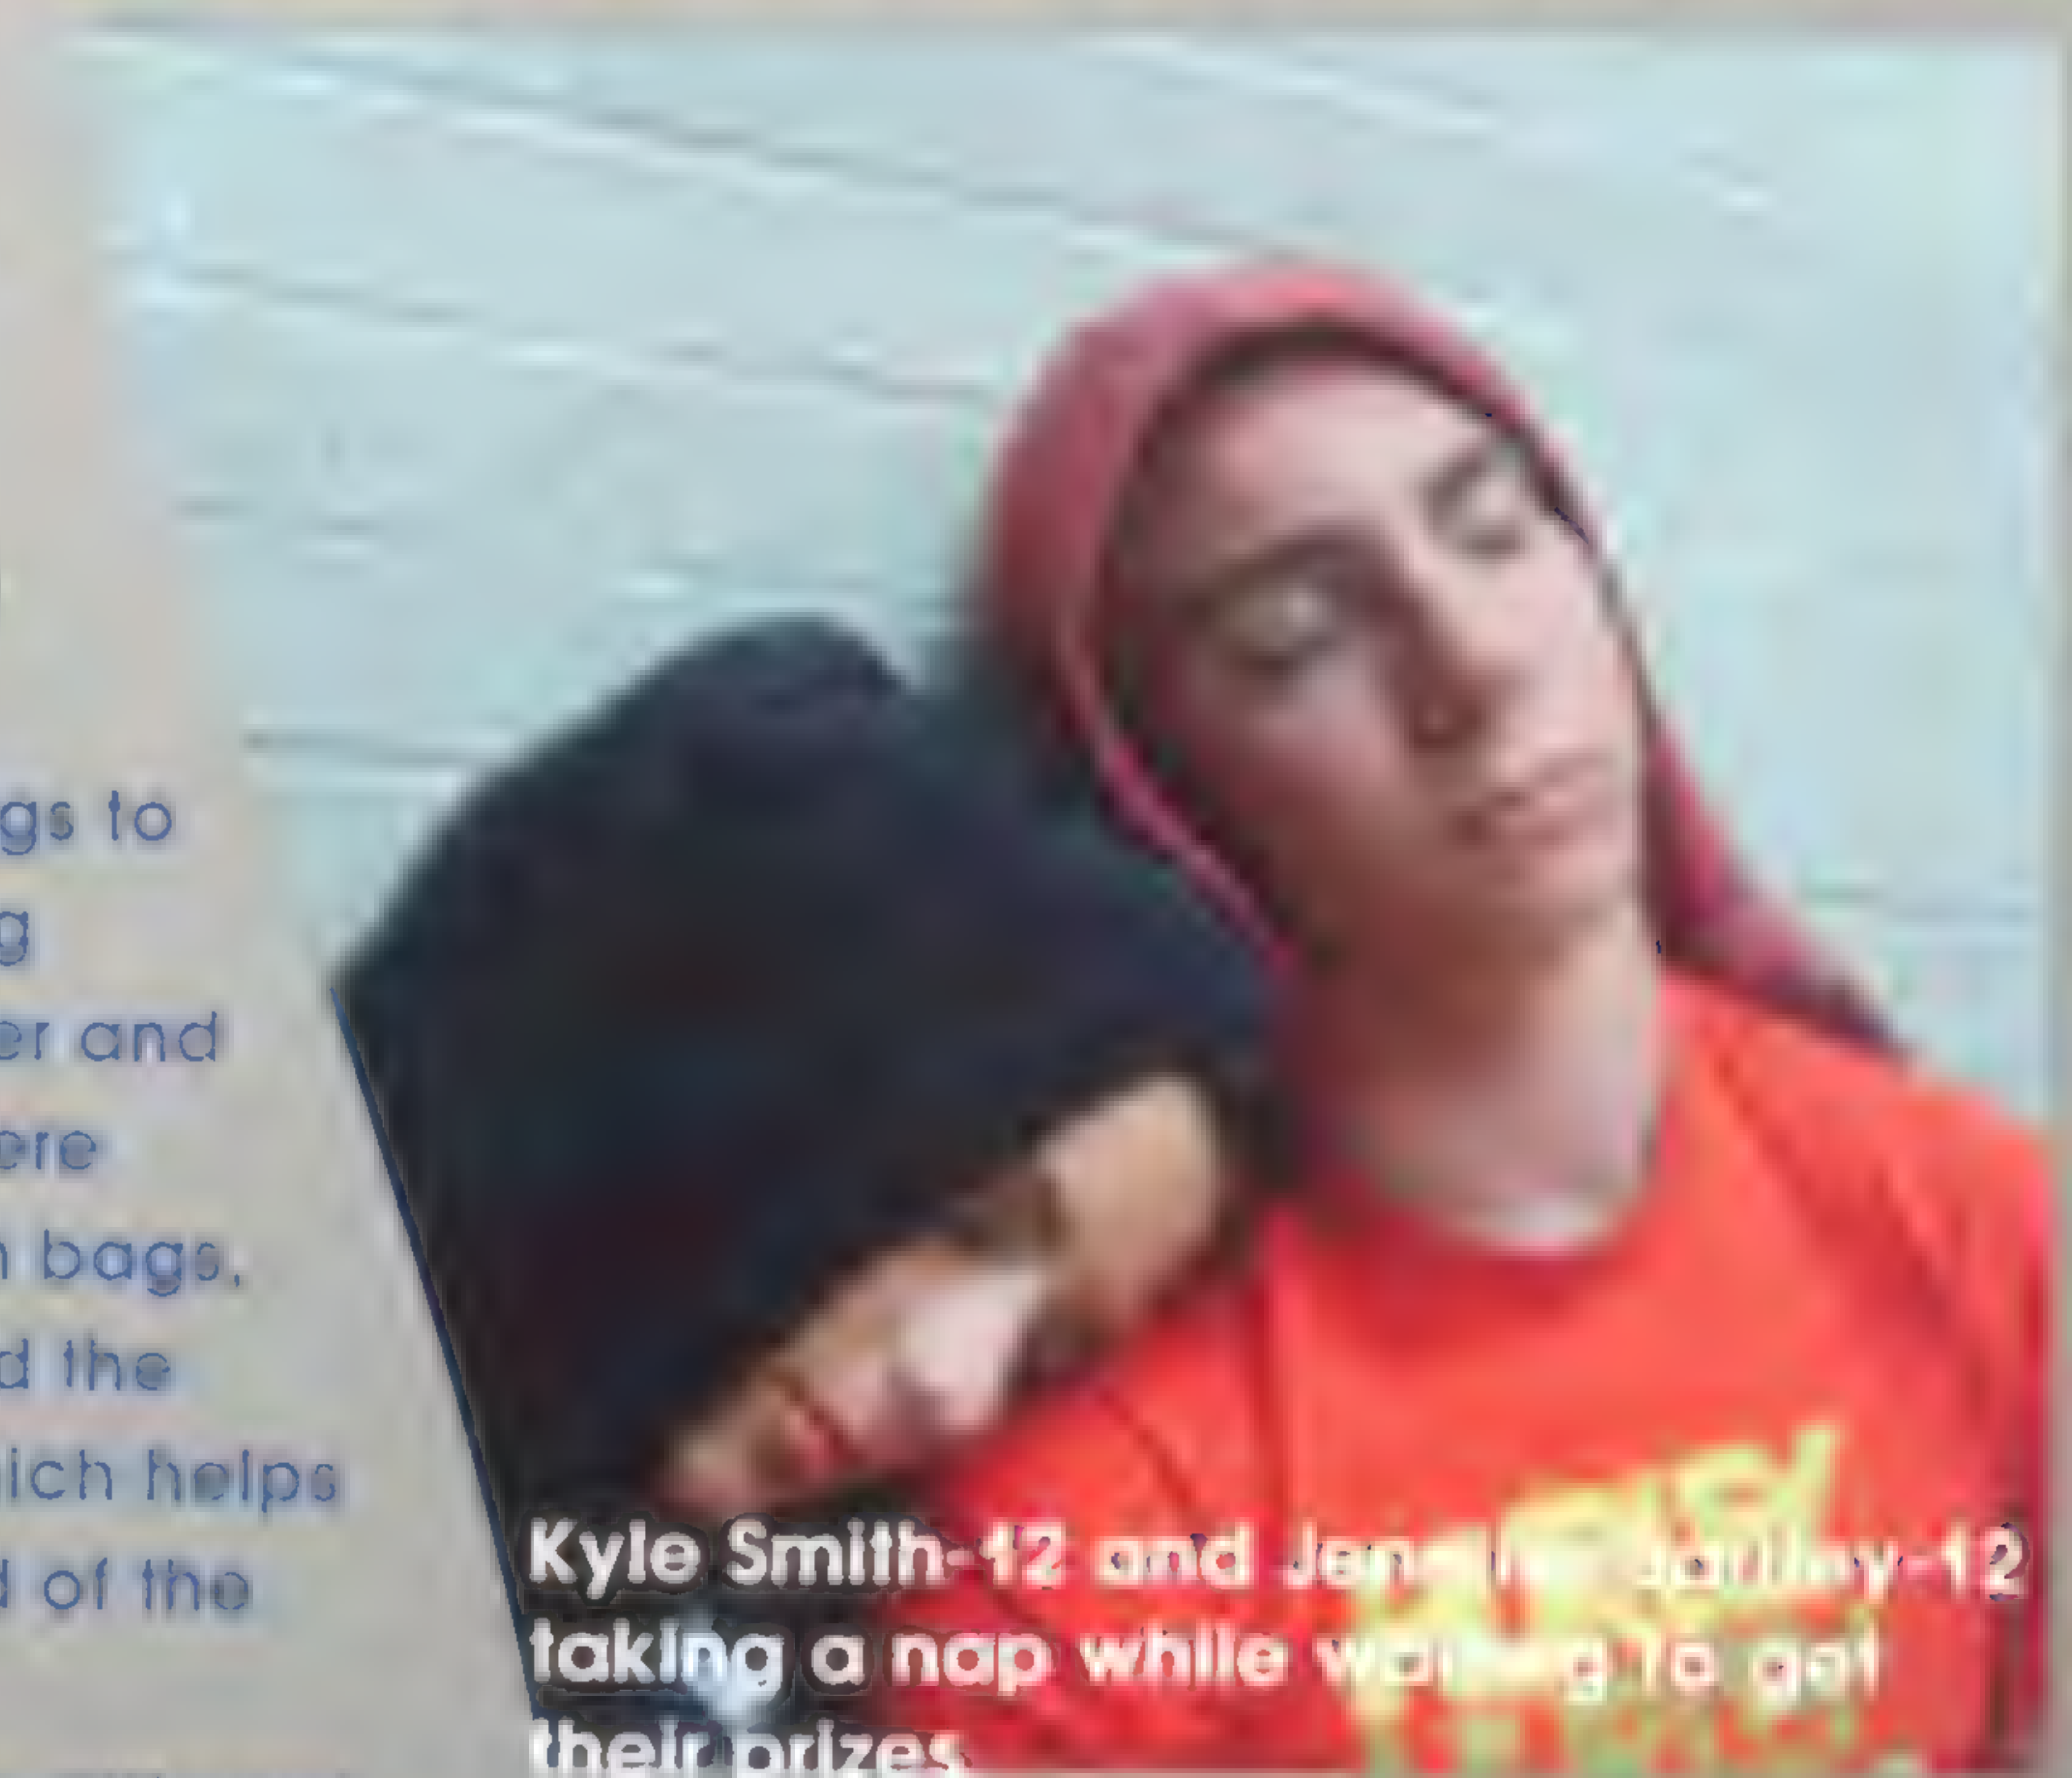

There were tons of fun and cool things to do. In the cafeteria there were ping pong tables, a bounce house, inflatable twister and an obstacle course. In the hallways there were little games like tic tac toe bean bags, and a hole of putt putt. If you finished the task, you would get fake money, which helps the student to get a prize at the end of the night.

Around the school, there were different photo ops where the students could pose and take pictures, for money also. There were free charactures and free temporary tattoos that they students really enjoyed. In the concession stand by the gym were all kinds of great foods, from breakfast items to Chick-Fil-A nuggets. If the students were feeling lucky, they could try some poker, black jack or texas hold'em.

Finally at the end of the night, when all the money was counted up, the students would wait until 7 am to get a shot at all the cool prizes that were offered, bought or donated to Project Celebration.

Cody Tallaferra-12 slides into first in the obstacle race in the gym.

Kyle Smith-12 and Jennifer Jarley-12 taking a nap while waiting to get their prizes.

Steven Cambell-12, Jacob Alpuerto-12, Matt Harris-12 and Jack Kelly-12 playing some Texas Hold'em.

Project Celebration was great! This was with the theme of PC, 60s!

Sleepy seniors rest while they waited patiently for the right time for prizes.

Chiessa-12, Amanda Perez-12 and David... the morning, cruise in their love bug.

Michael Blaz-12 getting a fake tattoo, all the rage at project celebration.

Draw Dilley-12 and Allison Strawn-11, having fun at Project Celebration.

Dylan Francoise-12 passed out after a long night.

Senior Sunrise & Sunset

When the sun was rising the first day of senior year 2010 a group of Michigan High School seniors met by the baseball field to congregate and share the special moment together. Senior Sunrise is a ceremony that is held on the first day of school where seniors can hang out, enjoy each others company, and watch the sun metaphorically rise on their senior year. When Christine Cermak 12 was asked about her personal experience with Senior Sunrise, she responded "Even though senior sunrise was so early, we had an awesome turnout. It was a fun way to start off our senior year. I can't wait for senior sunset next!"

Finally as the sun set on the class of 2010's senior year, the seniors gathered together by the baseball field to hang out and talk about their memories. Senior Sunset is an event planned by the senior class where the seniors get together and hang out. They just talk and just play games like frisbee or they pass around the football. While hugging and holding back tears Jennifer Bartley-12 said, "This is sad, but I'm ready to start the next chapter in my life." After tons of pictures were taken, everyone watched the sunset on their senior year.

Here's to a great year for Rickland High School's award winning marching band. Ending the football season with a bang, R-HS band made an enormous impact on the school and the community.

Throughout the year, the band has been a source of pride for the school and the community. They have participated in many competitions and have won several awards. The band is made up of students who are passionate about music and who work hard to perfect their craft. They are a true representation of the school's commitment to excellence in all areas of learning.

The band is a great way for students to learn teamwork and leadership. They are also a great way to have fun and enjoy music. The band is a true source of pride for the school and the community.

The "new" colorguard with a new instructor

The Richland Colorguard was a "scholastic A" guard last year but now they are an "open" guard all because of the new director, Mike Sloan. Mike Sloan is also the marching bands new drill writer. Sloan has elevated the colorguard to success. All of the girls are very excited that Mike Sloan has become their new instructor because he has made them what they never were before, an open guard.

Musical

Students at Richland keepin' it jazzy.

"Jazz band made me who I am. The best choice I made in high school was to join my freshman year. I made friends and had experiences that I will never forget." - Chris Duxbury-12

Jazz Band is a group of Richland High School students who share a common interest in jazz music. They improv during the first semester, and they play at competitions in the second semester.

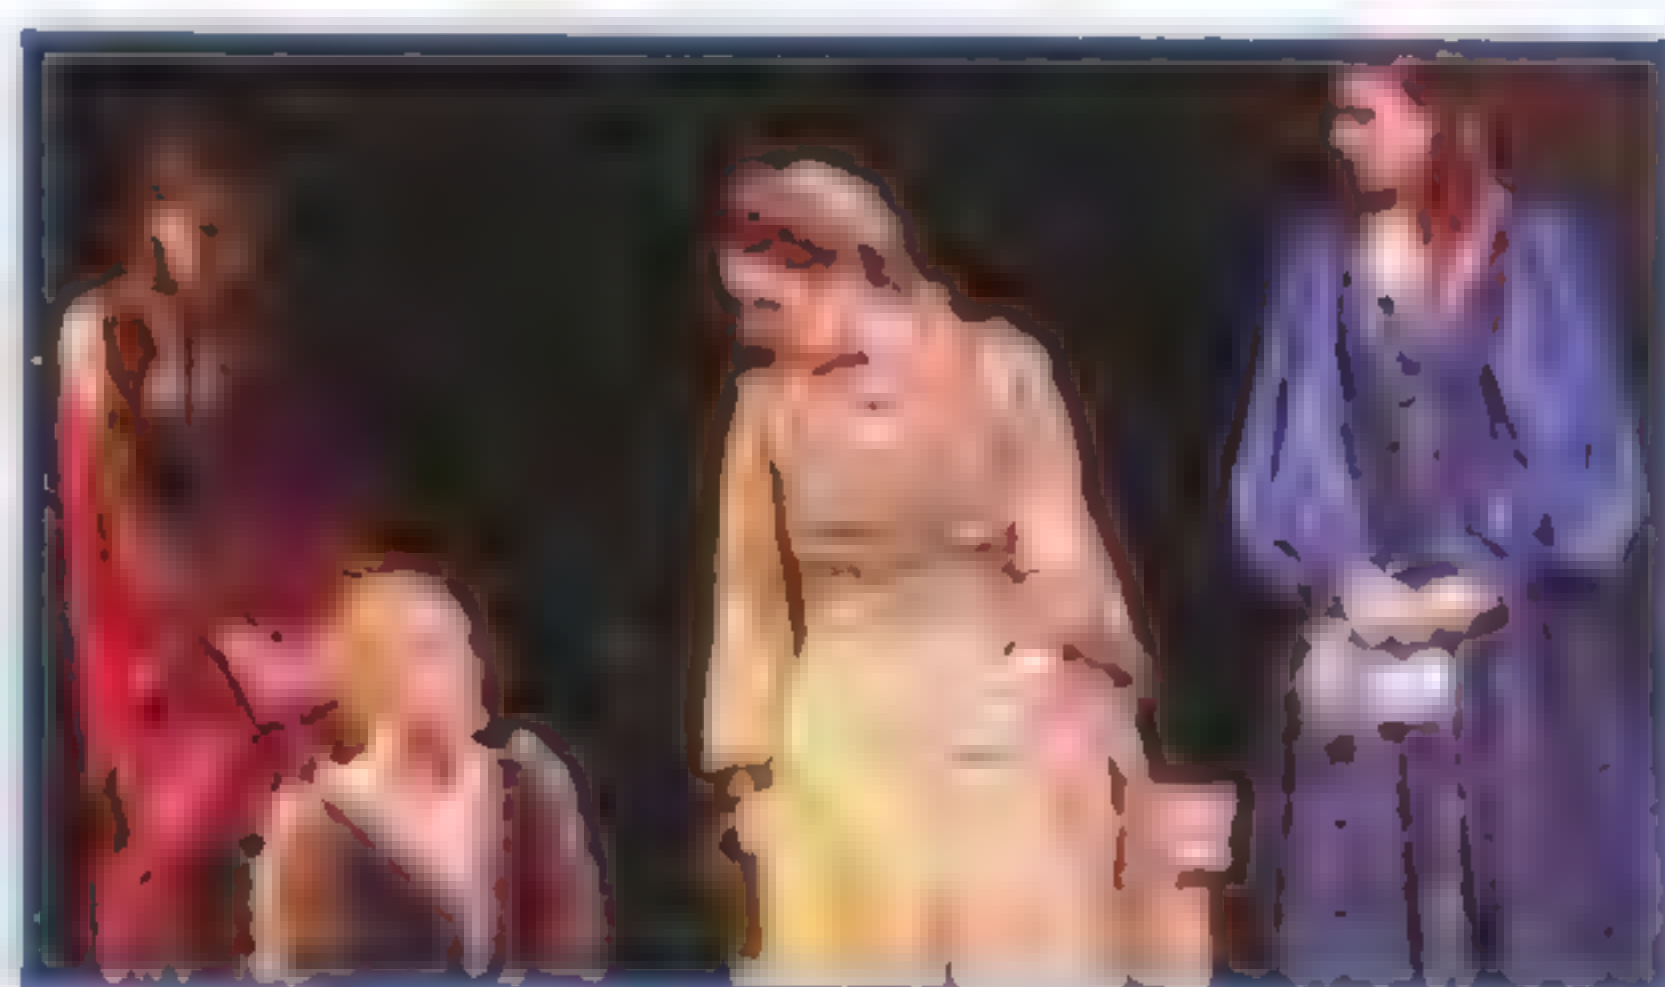

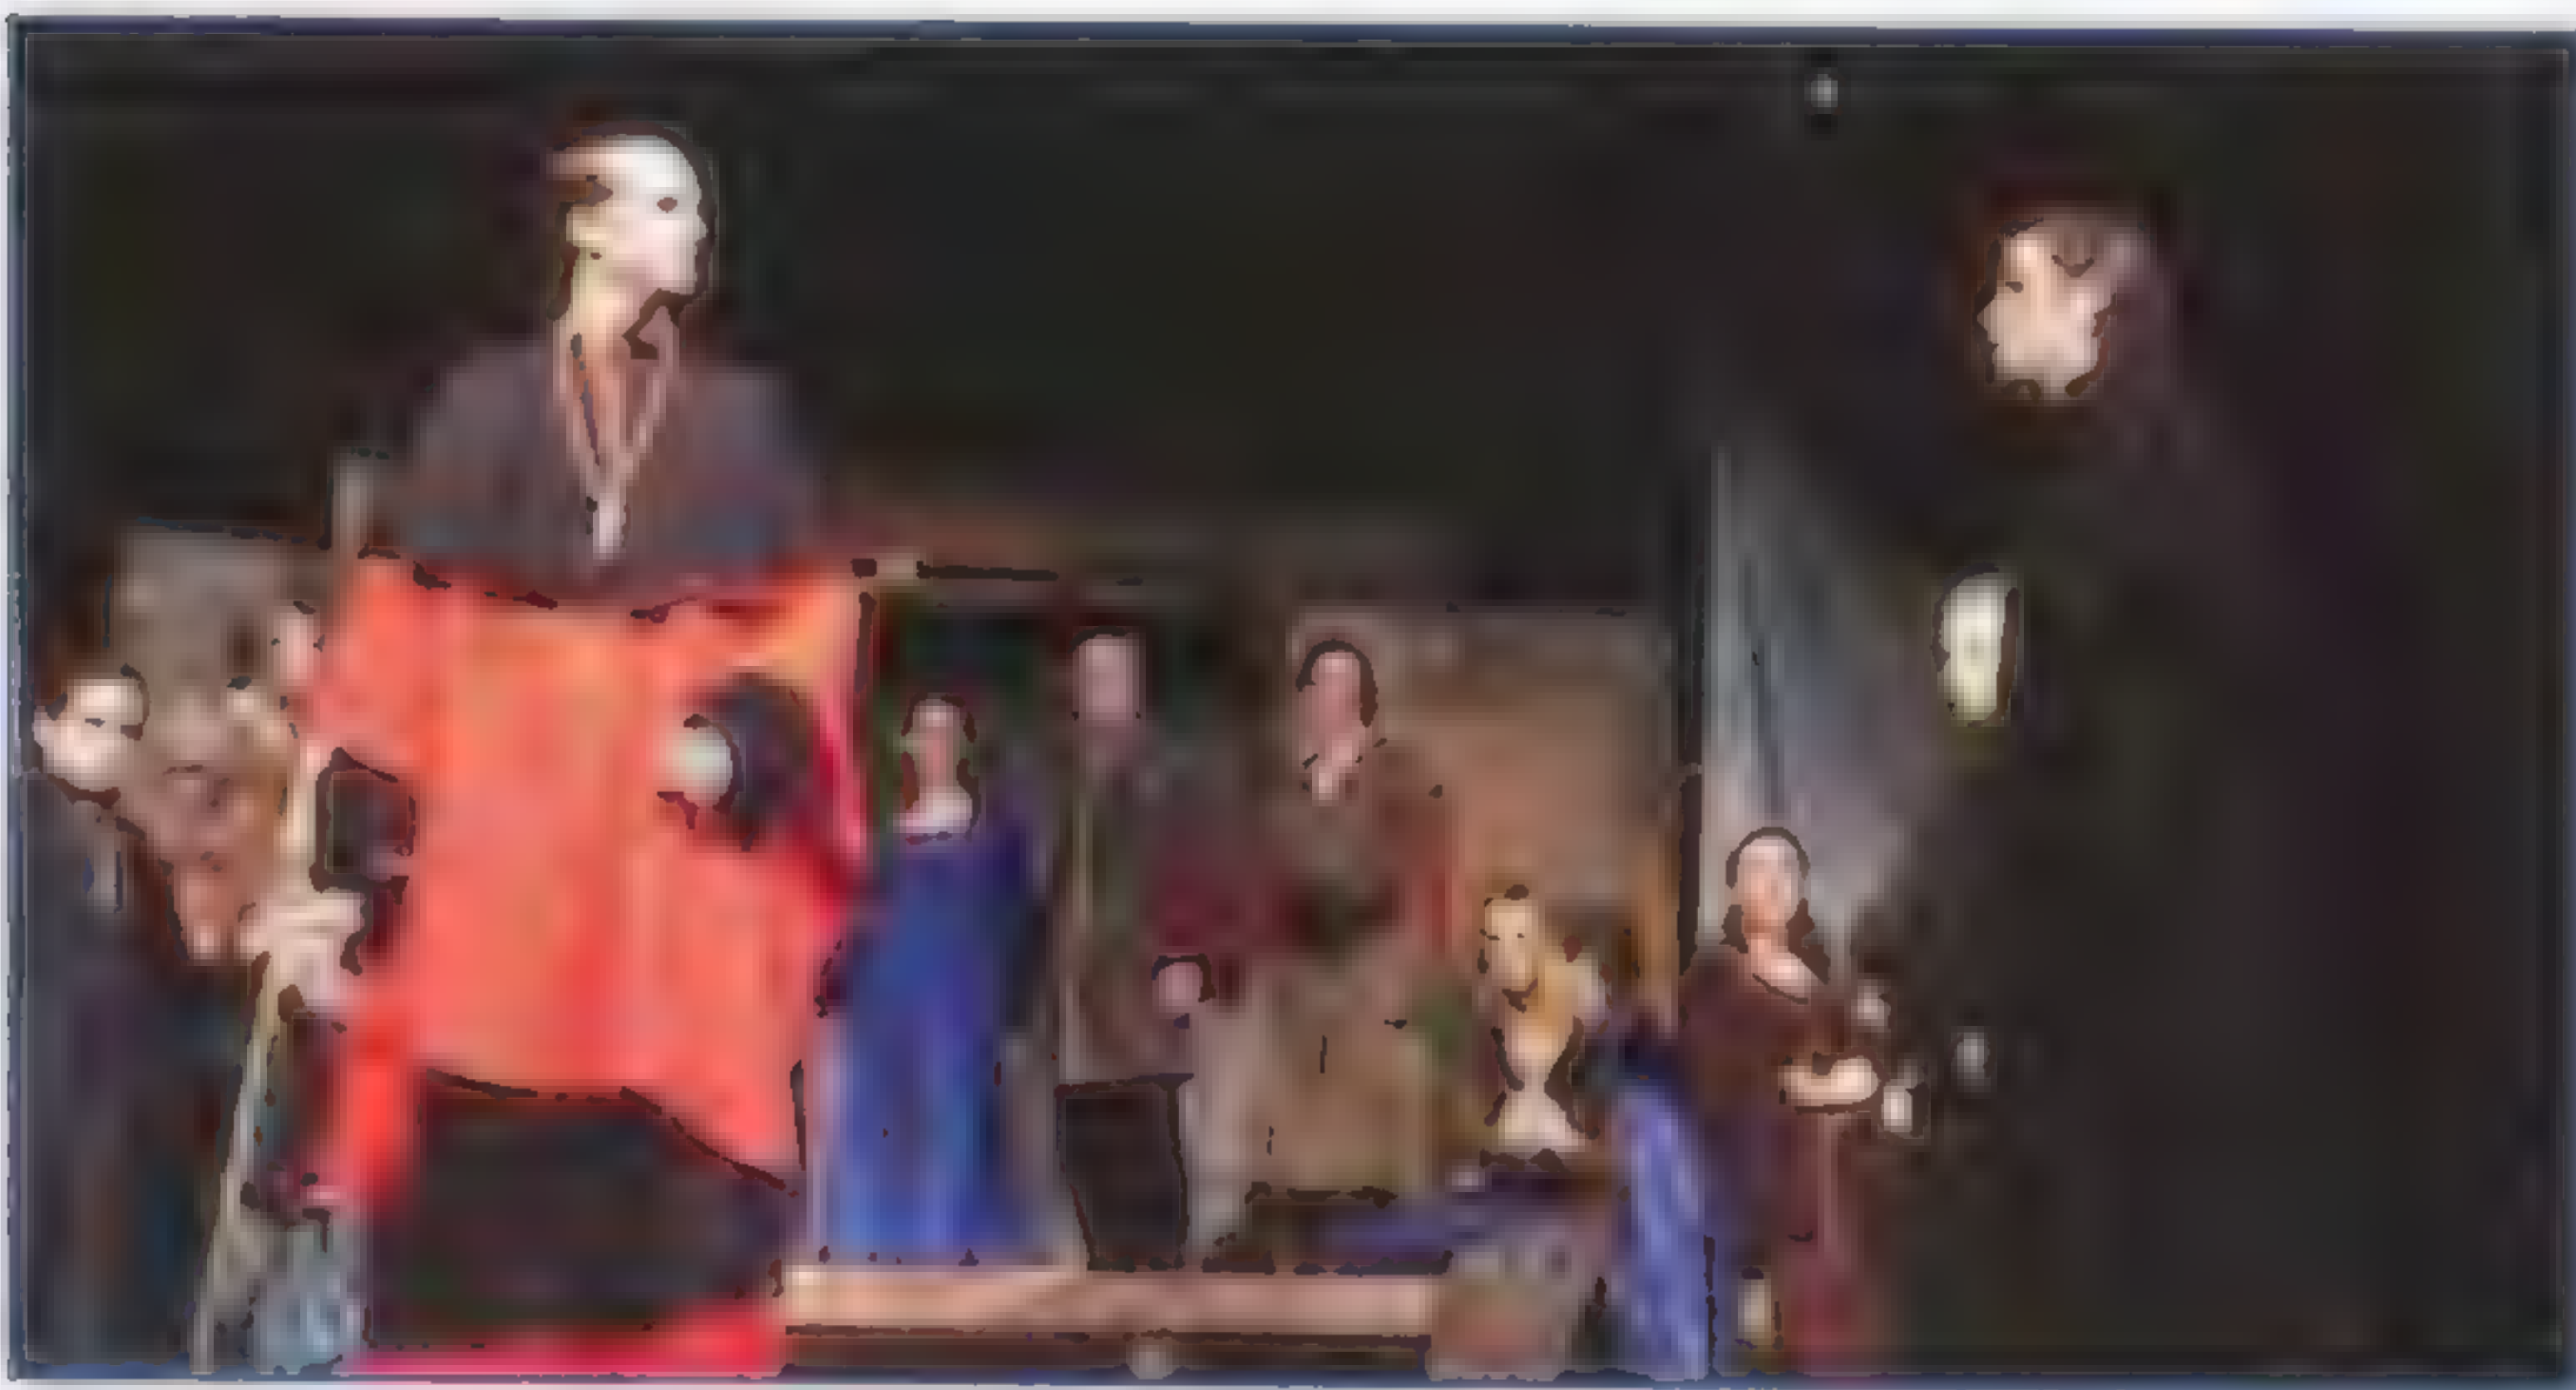

The jazz band called themselves the 11:30 Jazz Band to pay homage to UNT's world famous one o'clock jazz band and because that's when the class started."

The unique blending of the 20th TheatreBells is something that should be admired. The departments are like a well-oiled machine. This is especially evident when you single out one actor, or when you add all the band members. Playbill was the department's production of the 1920's and the notorious Burr Hart and her murder charges. The fun-and clever piece was performed at Monday and at the first high school in the nation to have performed it. The Women and Wolfgang was in a whole other ball game. After years of attempting to get this beautiful piece approved, the TheatreBells performed a performance of a life time, showing grace, maturity, and love, over all his set. Theatre

This year, everyone in their English classes got to miss a day to go and see the art show. Inside of Gym 3, the students lined up by the masses to view the spectacle. They saw art from all different levels (from Art 1 to Art 4). They were able to see their fellow classmates' work, and appreciate the dedication and effort they put into their pieces. The contrubtions from artists of all grades reflected the hard work and unique talents of the students who created them.

BE A Leader

Army JROTC

JROTC is a program in Richland High School that promotes leadership, teamwork, excellence and in a way that most students do not get in an everyday experience. JROTC stands for Army Jr. Reserve Officer Training Core, and as the name implies it is run like the United States Army. The Army is not the only one with a JROTC program, the Marines, Navy, and Air Force also have similar programs, but they are not offered at Richland. Contrary to the popular believe the JROTC programs are not a recruiting ground for the armed forces, although the program does help to get into collages with an ROTC program, and to have the armed forces pay for college. This in turn does go into the military. JROTC is place where students truly have a chance to excel in an after school environment, with the ability to advance and be in a true leadership position, as if in a job or in the military. Students also have a chance to join many different teams such as: Physical Training team, Color Guard armed, and unarmed, Rifle team, and the Academics team.

One of the biggest events of JROTC is the Army Formal Inspection, or AFI. AFI is the culmination of all the cadets have worked for in the Army JROTC program. The Army Formal Inspection is a test of the three areas of JROTC: Knowledge, Uniform, and Marching. First all cadets are graded on how close there uniform looks compared to how it is supped to look. After this the cadets are asked three knowledge questions that can be over, Chain of command, Uniform, or, Rank. Last the company commander marches the cadets in a predetermined sequence. The total score of the company is added up with the others to find the core total. This is the racked into three grades. This year our JROTC got Honors unit (2nd best achievable)

This year's science department has really put on quite a show this year for the students here at Richland High School.

Whether its Mr. McKnight showing his students the wonders of chemistry...

Or Mrs. Young showing her students the functions of biology...

Or Mr. Brewer showing his students the marvels of physics...

Or Ms. Allen showing her students the basics of anatomy...

You can't deny that the Richland Science Department has got to BE fascinating.

"I enjoy science because it is a fun subject that allows me to understand the physical world, well, mainly how things explode in it..." Hannah Bradely - 12

PALS or Peer Assistance Leadership Students, go to elementary school Monday through Thursday to help the children in anyway possible, whether its helping them with school work, playing games with them, or just there to listen and be a friend. The administrator for PALS, Kathy Hudson said "I like it because it is all about serving and helping people". On Fridays the PALS help out teachers around the school with anything that's needed.

This year's DECA team was definitely one group that had many good events happen to them. Whether it was Caleb Aytes - 12, placing at the International Career Development Conference, or Nicole Zajimovic - 10 and Blaik Ziegler - 11 coming in as alternates, DECA had to be pretty amazing this year. Another crazy thing to happen was how freshman Daniel Whitted advanced to the state competition, being the youngest one to do so in the history of Richland's DECA organization. Despite all their hard work and effort they have put into their work, Nicole Zajimovic says, that "the most important thing (they) remember to do, is to have fun."

"Being able to make a difference in someone's life is amazing.
That's what T.A.F.E. is about." NATASSIA ANDERS-12

"It's kind like payin it forward, it makes me feel good that I can help people in need" AMY QUINTEN-11

"It makes me feel like a great person to know that I am helping the lives of the unfortunate" Kourtnee Castillo-10

"Helping the people of haiti makes me feel like I accomplished something and makes me feel great" Joshua Oestricher-10

"It makes me feel better cause I get to help people in need" Sarah Gomez-10

"When I help out the people of haiti it makes me feel like I made a difference" Skyler Hotze-10

"I love helping Haiti, and i love getting free hugs." MEAGAN RICHARDSON

"We would like to establish Rickland HS as a place of kindness, social awareness and learning through a most simple expression of human altruism and love." ERIKA OLIVIA-11

Aid to Haiti

People all around the world sent financial aid to Haiti. Here at Rickland High School, we did our very best to send our contributions as well.

Many different organizations at Rickland High School donated time and money to help with relief in Haiti. Coach Bacon and his basketball boys were the first to start contributions and at the end of their time limit, students at Rickland High School donated around four thousand dollars. Some teachers, like Mr. Schilling, raised around four hundred dollars to help in Haiti. One of our journalists interviewed one of the girls behind the "Free Hugs" movement, Erika Olivia-11. We asked her "Why Free Hugs?" and her quick response was that while in Austin for a FCCLA conference, they were showed the Free Hugs video during one of the first sessions. "We realized how much power a hug can have."

BE TALENTED

"Every act supported each other, it was a competition, but everyone had great sportsmanship"-Ms. Farney

The crowd went silent as they announced the winners, then erupted when Artavia Mishaw won 1st place in the Richland Talent show. She was followed by Jaynee Purchase with 2nd, and Kaydra Branna with 3rd

When I did decide however, I practiced at home, made an instrumental CD, put it in my car, and sang it every time I drove." - Artavia Mishaw-12

JOHNNY REBS BE CRAZY

As a tradition to this high school, the Johnny Rebs hype the crowds during basketball, volleyball, and especially football games. Pep rallies have a tradition of "Johnny Be Good" to get the students involved in the Rebel tradition. Amanda Perez, one of the J. Reb captains says that, "being a captain was an experience that I'll never forget. I felt like a mom." Amanda Grafton (last year's captain) taught me well." Austin Miller, the other J. Reb captain says that being a captain was "a complete joy and honor. This year's team (was) so amazing and I am so blessed to be leading such a talented and fun group!"

BE Somebody

Richland High School's Who's Who are seniors chosen by the faculty to represent an organization or class by their character.

Being honored as a Who's Who is a great award to receive. These students were awarded this because they have a great personality, they are hard working, and showed skill in the class, organization, or sport that they were in. Amanda Perez-12 was awarded with favorite class girl and when she was asked how she felt about being awarded she said, "I felt honored to receive a Who's Who award, it felt great knowing that I was nominated by the faculty and that they thought so highly of me. I'm going to miss all of my teachers, a long with the rest of Richland High School. I loved being a Rebel."

Celebrating The End.

Graduates blow off steam after thirteen long years of school with friends and family.

"Will we think about tomorrow like we think about now?

Can we survive it out there?

Can we make it somehow?

I guess I thought that this would never end

And suddenly it's like we're women and men

Will the past be a shadow that will follow us 'round?

Will these memories fade when I leave this town

I keep, keep thinking that it's not goodbye

Keep on thinking it's a time to fly.

As we go on

We remember

All the times we

Had together

And as our lives change

From whatever

We will still be

Friends Forever." Vitamin C- Graduation Song

Saying goodbye to friends that most seniors have been with since the beginning is very hard. Many hugs and tears were shared. However even though it is a sad time, seniors at Richland High also took the time out to celebrate and rejoice the fact that they were done with high school forever. And what better way to celebrate then a party with your friends and family?

"Before you can be yourself, what you must do is find yourself."

STUDENT COUNCIL

To many students at Richland High School student council is just another organization but for the STUCO representatives it is an amazing opportunity to lead their high school and engage the student body in community service work and high school events such as being "homeless for a night."

"Homeless for a night" is one of the many events that Student Council held this year and happens to be one of the favorite. They got to live the homeless life as they collected blankets to donate to the community enrichment center.

As these students help represent Richland High School and engage the student body in helpful events, they are also making a great name for our school. One that summarized in one word would be leadership

Brittany Lynn,

We knew there was something special about you from the moment we laid eyes on you! You will never know the joy that you have brought to all of our lives. Your sweet spirit is evident in everything that you do. The years have flown by and now here you are in your senior year of High School! Keep following your heart and allowing God to guide your path. Your smile, your laughter and the love you have for everyone around you is contagious! God truly blessed us beyond measure the day you were born. We are so proud of all your accomplishments through the years, but the young woman with a tender heart and strong faith are what we are most proud. Continue to lead your life based upon faith, the support of family who will always be behind you in whatever you choose to do and many friends that love you and wish you the very best!

We all love you so much!!

Daisy, my baby sister we've been through a lot over the years. I remember playing with our dolls and riding in my pink convertible barbie car in the back yard. Im so proud of you for so many reasons. First for being an awesome sister and being there when I needed you, second for being great to henry (brother) and your nephew brayden and your niece madison. And third for doing everything on your own. Im so proud of you for getting yourself into a University and for graduating high school all the way. These past months have been really tough for us and i will be there, any time you need me. Especially if it gets you through graduating college. Congradulations on getting accept to johnson & wales university. We all support you and are waiting for you to come home. We miss you all ready!

Love, heidi, brayden, madison, henry and daddy

Jacob,

Success comes when rendering useful service, money is just a by product. Imagination is priceless, adversity it will overcome. A man who knows what he wants in life, just needs to follow the plan. Those who fail to plan, plan to fail.
There will be road blocks, just use integrity. Great achievement is born of great sacrifice, and sacrifice is NEVER
a result of selfishness.
